VISION

Authored (Authored Platform) is an application active on Android and iOS.

Not only functioning as Amazon Books, Google Books, Apress, Wiley, ... and other online publishing system, but Authored is also a social network platform that allows to publish high-quality content from the writers and authors of the products.

Copyright content may be:

- A book.
- An essay, scientific research.
- A short story.
- An expert's piece of share.
- A utility tip.
- .....

Authored provides a service which enables to connect publishers, writers with the readers who are in need to seek the useful information.

Given differentiation and superiority compared to other systems, Authored does not offer a paper-based book distribution service. It offers an Authored-based online service of distribution books, focusing deeply on user experience and digging in provision of smarter services for users in the 4.0 technology era.

1. Authored employing the Blockchain technology – it is the using of ATH Tokens based on ERC-20 platform as the means of conversion in the system. The purchase of printing is in a snap with Visa, MasterCard or even a bank account.
2. The authors can publish their product on Authored in a quickly and friendly way, like making a status on social network Facebook, Twitter, ect.
3. Readers are allowed to use the Authored with a pleasurable experience. In addition to purchasing the original publication from the authors at a reasonable cost, they can also interact directly with the author.
4. Authored shall provide a speech book service with the aim to serve the readers who desire to hear good, emotional reading voices or simply being too lazy to read on their own online books due to tiredness to look at them. The voices are record by authors themselves or other members.
5. Users can “mine” ATH directly on Authored by various activities from rating the authors, joining the recording community, etc which creates a source of income for themselves.

And other useful features.

Without stopping to issue Tokens for capital calling, ATH shall be used as the sole and primary payment method in the Authored platform to maximize revenue as well as minimize third-side service charges as the traditional payment system before.

In the era of share economy, Authored is a breakthrough product in the social platform on book publish, promising to complete the blankets of the previous products on the market. Authored is expected to make a new beginning, bringing a positive experience for writers and readers around the world.
